

According to the signed agreement, Servier is to assess the opportunities for potential transfer of modern pharmaceutical technologies for contract manufacturing production in Kazakhstan. This Agreement also considers the development and implementation of joint scientific projects in different therapeutic areas and carrying out a set of educational and awareness campaigns and programmes in the field of prevention and treatment of non-communicable diseases. "For Servier development and strengthening of our cooperation with the Republic of Kazakhstan, where we have been operating for more than 20 years, is one of the priorities. We still have a lot to do together with our partners, but I am confident that this is a very important and timely step towards increasing the availability of high-quality innovative solutions for patients of the Republic of Kazakhstan," said Jérôme Gavet.

In 2018, Swissôtel Krasnye Holmy Moscow was first recognized as Europe's Leading Luxury Business Hotel 2018. "We are honored to once again become the owner of this prestigious award. Despite the growing competition in the market, the hotel manages to maintain the highest reputation, offering travelers the Swiss hospitality combined with the highest quality of service. We are very pleased that our efforts are valued both by the professionals and our guests, and we promise to constantly deliver the top standards of service. This year we are dedicating these awards to late Sarik Tara, the founder and honorary chairman of ENKA Holding, hotel owning company. Mr. Tara is the reason why we have our hotel as a part of the Russian Cultural Centre "Moskva – Krasnye Holmy". He will always be in our heart as we will continue enjoying fruit of his vision," said Jan Chovanec, General Manager of the hotel.

Tablogix

Tablogix started managing operations of Michelin logistics centre

One of the leaders of the tire market, Michelin, selected Tablogix for managing operations of the logistics centre in Russia. The warehouse is located on the territory of the Michelin industrial site in Davydovo (Moscow region); the warehouse area is 61,000 sq m. Tires from this warehouse are shipped to points of sale in Russia and CIS as well as for exports. Tablogix started working on 1 August 2018.

The logistics centre allowed Michelin to optimise logistics processes in Russia and CIS, reducing storage costs and delivery time. The company develops an innovative approach in logistics to provide the best service and quality for its customers.

"It is strategically important for us to expand cooperation with the world industrial leaders. We are happy to provide logistics support to our new partner and we expect that our collaboration will allow both companies to strengthen positions in the market," said Denis Savelyev, Sales Director of Tablogix.

Tablogix is known in Russia as one of the first logistics company who began to provide warehouse services for the automotive aftermarket according to international quality standards. Today, Tablogix manages the central part distribution centres of the largest automotive companies.
